1901.

CHARTER.

To the Honorable B. R. WELLFORD,

Judge of the Circuit Court of Richmond:

The petition and certificate of Ellen Bernard Lee and others, whose names are signed below, respectfully represents that they desire, under the provisions of Section 1145, Code of Virginia, 1887, to form themselves, and such other persons as shall hereafter be associated with them, into a joint stock company for the conduct of the business hereinafter set forth, and to that end ask to have granted unto them a charter of incorporation.

First. The name of the Company is to be "The Association for the preservation of Virginia Antiquities."

Second. The object is to restore and preserve the ancient historic buildings and tombs in the State of Virginia, and acquire by purchase or gift the sites of such buildings and tombs with a view to their perpetuation and preservation.

Third. The capital stock of said Company is to be not less than $50, and not more than $1,000,000, divided into shares of $10 each.

Fourth. That the principal office of said Company shall be at the city of Richmond, Virginia, and the said Company shall have power to establish branch associations in such cities, towns, or neighborhoods as to them may seem fit; and may make such rules, by-laws, and regulations for their government, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, as to them shall seem fit.

Fifth. The chief business of the Company shall be to acquire, for the purposes aforesaid, the sites of said tombs and buildings by gift or purchase, and to that end may acquire and hold real estate not to exceed 100,000 acres.

Sixth. That the officers for the first year shall be as follows, viz:

Mrs. ELLEN BERNARD LEE, President,

Mrs. MARY PEGRAM ANDERSON, 1st Vice-President,

Mrs. CYNTHIA B. T. COLEMAN, 2d Vice-President,

Mrs. MARY LOUISA TAZEVELL, 3d Vice-President,

Mrs. ELIZABETH HENRY LYONS, Secretary,

Mrs. BELLE S. BRYAN, Treasurer, to be succeeded afterwards by elections to be had in conformity with rules, by-laws, and regulations which may hereafter be adopted by the Association for their government.

VIRGINIA:

Office of Secretary of Commonwealth, April 1, 1889:

Charter lodged and recorded.

H. W. FLOURNOY,
Secretary of Commonwealth.

CHARTER OF 1892.

AN ACT

Incorporating the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities.

Approved March 3, 1892.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That Belle S. Bryan, Cynthia B. T. Coleman, Mary Jeffery Galt, Parke C. Bagby, Elizabeth Henry Lyons, Mary Pegram Anderson, Ann S. Meredith, and such other persons as are now associated under a charter granted by the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond on the thirteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, under title of The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, or may hereafter become associated with them, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, for the purpose of acquiring, holding and preserving real and personal property relating to the history of Virginia, and particularly to restore and preserve the ancient historic buildings, tombs, monuments and grave-yards, and to acquire by purchase, gift or otherwise the sites of such property, buildings, tombs and grave-yards, with a view to their perpetuation and preservation.

2. The Principal office of said Association shall be in the city of Richmond, Virginia, and the said Association shall have power to establish branch associations in such other places as said Association may select: and the branches so established shall be subordinate to and governed by the parent Association established in the city of Richmond, and the parent Association may make such rules, by-laws and regulations for the government of the branch associations as to it may seem proper and necessary.

3. The said association shall have power to make and adopt a constitution and by-laws, rules and regulations, for the admission of its members and the members of its branch associations, the election of its officers, and to define the rights and interests of members and the duties of officers, and for the safe-keeping and preservation of its property and funds, and from time to time to alter or repeal such constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations: provided, that the same be not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States or of the State of Virginia.

4. The Association shall have the power to receive, use, manage and dispose of all funds and property, either real or personal, that may be purchased, granted, donated, devised or bequeathed it, in such manner and to such amount as shall seem to it best calculated to advance the objects of its incorporation.

5. All the property, real, personal or mixed, which said Association now owns or may hereafter acquire by gift, purchase or otherwise, shall be exempt from all State, county and city taxes or levies.

6. The amount of real estate which the Association may hold at any one time shall not exceed five thousand acres.

7. Any general meeting of the members of the Association, regularly called, at which there are present not less than twenty members, shall be deemed a lawful meeting for the transaction of any and all of the business of the Association.

8. All acts hitherto done by the persons associated together as The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, and the purchases of all property in the name of said Association, are hereby ratified and confirmed as if said persons had at the time been regularly incorporated as said Association.

9. This act shall be in force from its passage.

AN ACT

To grant to The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities all the title and interest of the State in certain portions of Jamestown Island, and to confer upon said Association the power to condemn lands.

Approved March 1, 1892.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That all the right, title and interest of the State of Virginia to and in the church-yard, church lot and grave yard in and upon Jamestown Island be and the same is hereby granted and transferred to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, and the said Association shall own and hold the same forever for the purposes prescribed in its charter.

2. All the franchises, rights and powers contained in chapter forty-six of the Code of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven are hereby conferred upon said Association, and it shall be deemed an internal improvement company for the purpose of acquiring by condemnation such additional land upon said Jamestown Island as shall be necessary for ample ingress and egress to and from all sides of said church yard, church lot, and grave yard, and particularly from the said church yard, church lot, and grave yard, to and from the main land on one side and the river on the other, and to erect, if the said Association shall deem necessary, a bridge connecting said island with the main land, and for that purpose to have the further right to condemn a site or sites sufficient for the erection of said bridge.

3. This act shall be in force from its passage.

A copy:

J. BELL BIGGER,

Clerk of House of Delegates and Keeper of the Rolls of Virginia.
